

Felicitation to Mrs. Nitali Sharma Dutta, an alumni, Department of Philosophy

Jointly organized by Department of Philosophy and Students' Union of Dhemaji Collge.

Date 17/11/2022

On 17th November 2022, Mrs. Nitali Sharma Dutta who was an ex student of Department of Philosophy (Batch 2007) visited the department of philosophy. She is at present a journalist and an eminent writer who had achieved first prize in best Novel writing competition organized by “Ardha Akash”, a social media platform for female writers in the year 2021. Her Novel is Meghar Shadhu comprising of 480 pages. The publisher of the Novel is Banalata and the ISBN no is 978-93-91060-80-3.

She has visited Dhemaji College with the view of gifting a copy of her first Novel to her department. i.e the department of Philosophy, a copy to the Principal and a copy to college Library. A felicitation program was organized by the Department of Philosophy and the Student's Union. The program was initiated by Vice-Principal of Dhemaji College Dr. Annajyoti Gogoi. In the Program a few teaching staffs along with the students of Dhemaji College were present. Mrs. Nitali Sharma Dutta had delivered a very fruitful speech from the perspective of literary writing and had explained how social media can serve as a good platform for potential or new writers at present.

