

Online Covid-Awarenes Program

Date: 17/04/2020

Organised by: Department of Philosophy, Dhemaji College.

On 17/04/2020, an online covid awareness program was organised by the Department of Philosophy in which 28 students of the department were present online. In the program HoD of Philosophy, Bipul Baishya gave an introductory speech on howwe, i.e, the general public can play significant role in putting a stop to the spread of Covid. He adviced the students not to panic and to undergo proper measures like stay indoors as much as possible, comsumption of nutritious food rich in Vitamine C, etc., to develop the immune system, proper use of mask, maintainanace of social distance, proper sanitization etc. He also encouranged the students to spread this knowledge among their family members and others.